

DLM driving school's T&C's

Introduction	Hello and thank you for choosing DLM driving school to help you on your journey to safe and independent driving, and of course obtaining that all important driving licence.
	Your instructor will work with you and tailor your lessons around your needs and will let you know when the time is right to book your practical driving test. In the mean time please feel free to study as much as you can on theory as this will help both you and your instructor reach your goals at a much faster rate.
	You can book and sit your theory test at any time but we suggest you do it as soon as possible because knowledge is power.
Driving lesson deposits	To make future bookings by either block or pay as you go, a deposit of the full lesson price will be required by either cash or bank transfer.
Provisional lesson bookings.	A provisional booking may be agreed by your instructor and held for a period of 24hours. If the deposit is not received within this period the lesson will be available for selection by other pupils.
Cancellation policy	The agreed lesson date and time must be adhered to unless 48 hours notice is given. The driving lesson deposit will be taken in full under DLM drivings 48 hour notice cancellation policy. #COVID-19 policy - If a driving lesson is cancelled late because you or someone you live with has suspected Coronavirus symptoms, then on production within 5 days of a written Covid -19 test result, the lesson fee will be credited back to your account. If a lesson is cancelled and confirmed positive for Coronavirus, it will not resume again for a mandatory 14 day period.
Declaration	I have read and understood the above information and will adhere to all of DLM driving school's policies.
